

Quackenbush Lecture Featuring Erwin Chemerinsky

“Reforming the Supreme Court”

Dean of UC Berkeley School of Law Erwin Chemerinsky will discuss term limits for Supreme Court Justices and other reforms.

Dean Chemerinsky has been called the most influential person in legal education and has authored sixteen books on constitutional and legal issues, over 200 law review articles, and is a well-respected and entertaining presenter.

- Free Admission
- Attendees can park without a pass in front of the law school after 5:00 p.m.
- Backpacks/bags will not be allowed in the courtroom during the lecture.

March 7

6:00 p.m.

Barbieri Courtroom

Gonzaga Law School

School of Law

